

Withdrawing from FSU?

If you are formally withdrawing from Florida State University, the final notification of your withdrawal action will contain the following statement:

Please note that Cancellation of the student health plan does not occur automatically when a student withdraws from the University. The student must send a request to healthcompliance@admin.fsu.edu. Questions regarding the cancelation of the student health plan should be addressed to the Health Compliance Office, 850-644-3608.

Please note: If you have purchased the student health plan and are leaving the University with or without completing a formal withdrawal, you must contact the Health Compliance Office to determine whether you are eligible to retain your health insurance and/or what your financial responsibilities are concerning payment of uncollected premium. Failure to act may result in unpaid insurance premium balances being sent to collections.
